2011 Festival of Flowers May 26th
“Words in Bloom”
Floral Show and Competition at Brown Deer

IOWA CITY, Iowa, January 26, 2011 – United Action for Youth is hosting the 6th Annual Festival of Flowers. This unique fundraiser features entries from Professional Florists, Amateurs, Youth and Artists in the community. The festival will take place at Brown Deer Golf Course clubhouse on May 26. Categories include miniature floral, cut flowers, container gardens and floral art. This year’s theme is Words in Bloom, to celebrate Iowa City’s designation as an UNESCO City of Literature. United Action for Youth has served youth and families in the Johnson County area for over 40 years. The sneak preview is from 10am-5pm with $5 tickets for adults available at the door; 18 and under are free. The reception and auction will be held from 5:30pm to 8pm. Tickets are $30 and include wine and hors devours. More information is available online at www.unitedactionforyouth.com. The Festival of Flowers raises money for UAY’s Teen Parent, Youth Development, and Counseling Programs.
